Savage Cycles, future builder for Green Lantern Bike and renowned Corporate Theme Bikes & Custom Choppers scheduled as a feature at Axis of Steel - A Motorcycle Experience

Etters, PA - August 24, 2009 -Angel Marketing Group, LLC signs Savage Cycles as the feature theme bike and custom builder for the Axis of Steel - A Motorcycle Experience event to be held at the Lancaster County Convention Center on October 30 through November 1, 2009.

"Savage Cycles will be an outstanding addition to the event," says Eric Kropiewnicki when he returned from a visit to the home of Savage Cycles in Frostburg, MD. "Savage Cycles is a great collection of specialists in their field producing amazing bikes!"

When asked about recent activities for the company, Steve Shreve, marketing coordinator tells us, "We can mention that we are builders of the Jack Daniel's and Skin Industries theme bikes. We are also currently building a Simpson's bike and just landed a contract to build the Resident Evil Bike for CapCom. We also have contracts to build 3 bikes for Warner Bros/DC Comics, including the Green Lantern Bike for the movie to be released in 2011!"

Savage Cycles plans to bring an outstanding display of motorcycles that will fascinate attendees. We look forward to what they will bring!
